Very nice service I wish I could have been there. My condolences goes to all. I will truly miss Jeannie so many memories. Wish I was in better health. God bless

Linda Colbert - June 16, 2020 at 06:17 PM

The Service was very nice. The remarks of the friends were very comforting. Jeanne wasn't a sad little lonely person with no one to care for her or remember her life. What a blessed life. What a comfort to have a better picture to remember. I stayed until they stopped the camera. I could hear all of the conversations. It was like I was there in person.

The pain of losing you, dearest sister, is so awful. We will put it in the hands of the Lord to keep us and heal us. There are no words. Sustaining us are the memories of your kindness and sweet spirit, always looking out for the underdog. Detroit has lost one of its biggest fans. The Herron family has lost one of its sweetest members. May you flourish in the hands of our almighty God.

“ Jeanne Rose was such a special sister. Her dimpled smile lit up a room whenever she entered. She was so loving and caring, though often quiet and reserved, especially when she was playing her smart phone games. It's so painful for us that she's no longer in our world. We know she's in a much better one, but we will always miss her, our sweet Jeanne Rose.
