“ I'll always remember Jeriel as one of my many classmates at Immaculate Heart of Mary School (Detroit). He was authentically Jeriel and he didn't care.

One of my favorite memories was operating the lights for our presentation of excerpts from The Phantom of the Opera during our Spring Concert. Jeriel was cast as Phantom, and he didn't need to audition--the role was automatically his and nobody debated it. I LOVED when he delivered his first line with a big growl! I made the lights flicker extra wild! 😂

Rest well, Jeriel.
