“ I totally going to remember him saying Good morning, and being a symbol of strength and a big brother who you could listen to. He was a loyal man and an excellent musician, I know his soul is free, but he will be missed. Love and peace!

“ He will forever and always be in our heart and mind, So many good memories, lots of fun memories, from; music, game night(s), the pranks, the walks in the park with the dogs, the trip up north, the water fight when you went home soaking wet @ 40 years old, and so much more. You soul is free from now,our brother and friend. Love Delbert & Caroline Nelson

“ Jerome was more my brother than my friend. He was there for me when I needed a laugh, questions answered, money borrowed or a game partner. He was so witty and funny! One night after a Damon Wayans performance, he had us laughing more at him than we did at the show! I will miss his beautiful smile and quiet, thoughtful demeanor. Love you Gnome!
