“ Jether Winson always stood out of all people by his character, his big heart and his love for Jesus. Those of us who got to know him were very lucky for having crossed paths with him.

I had the opportunity to stay at with him and his wife and meet him the Church in Detroit. Later we teamed up on different occasions. Jether was a friend and a good helper when writing 'Way of the Cross' as well as the biographies about Sigurd Bratlie and Aksel J. Smith.

I shall keep his wonderful memory as a great treasure in my heart. He will be greatly missed.

“ Dear family. Warm condolences from my wife Gerry and Arie Weggeman from Holland.
I had the grace long ago to visit our dear brother and his wife in their home. His goodness and warmth was unforgettable for me.

“ I was lucky enough to stay/live with Br Jether and sister Voncile in their home for a period of time during my stay in Detroit in the late 90's.
I can never forget the love and care they had for me and their tremendous hospitality!
Many precious times of fellowship around the kitchentable at supper just the three of us! Sharing stories from their lives that made such an impression on me that I will never forget it! And sister Voncile's awesome cooking!
Br Jether had Jesus in him. A happy man. Uncomplicated. He had a shepherds love and care. He offered fellowship. Forgiveness was key. He was a man of prayer. Anointed with the oil of gladness. Cheerful and so in love with his wife. He was saying something sweet to her every day!
A warrior for Jesus and the faith in him! Humble! Hardworking!
A huge example for my life! I want to follow his faith and never doubt or fear and never surrender!
Thank you dear brother for everything! You will never be forgotten!
Our deep heartfelt condolences to Darius and dear sis Voncile! Lots of love from Heidi and Olav with family.

“ My deep condolences to the family. Dear dear brother. He was a brother who lived a resurrection life. I remember a message where he said “how did Jesus rise from the dead? Cuz you just can’t keep that kind of stuff in the ground”. He certainly had that “stuff” too. He will be missed, but now enters the new ministry of intercession for the saints still here on earth.

“ When I was approximately 3 years old, we had a spare bedroom that we called Brother Vinson’s room. One time, Darius was nursing and Br Jether teased us, saying Sis Voncile gives chocolate milk to Darius.

Br Jether was very easy to talk to about anything in life. Whenever I needed to talk to a Dad, I went to him. He fathered me most of my life! He never made me feel as if the life choices I was making were wrong. He did encourage me strongly and bluntly, with only LOVE and care. He loved my children.

Br Jether was the best Shepherd I ever met! He gently guided his people with tremendous enthusiasm. In my head, I still hear sentences of his teaching with his unique accent and descriptions, things he said 50 years ago, or more recently.

Can you image how jubilant and enthusiastic his greeting with a Jesus was?!? I loved him dearly!

Voncile, I love you. Darius, I pray that you will take your father’s enthusiasm for the gospel and spread it far & wide. You’ve lost a very Precious Man!

“ We will deeply miss Bro. Vinson. He had such a spirit of humility. I remembered how he would visit our home and play with the children when they were young. My children loved him and asked if my husband and I would buy a house next to him so they could see him everyday. His child-like spirit made him so easy to be around. Such a wonderful blessed man of God.

I thank God that I had the grace to meet this brother here on earth. He spoke faith into my own being, as I had never experienced before. And now for sure you can "pass through the walls" and distances, with no hindrance! (A prophecy he spoke about enthusiastically in our living room.) Even though you have passed on, still you speak!

I'm very thankful for the opportunity to meet him and the church in Detroit. I remember him as a shepherd and prophet and it's my wish to follow his faith so we will meet again.

“ I remember leaving a youth meeting in Brother Jether's basement way back in the 80s and upon leaving, he shook my hand as well as everyone's hand at the doorway and told me that I had full permission from God to not only seek the glory of the stars or the moon, but the glory of the Son. It was tremendous encouragement and comfort for me--a new convert. "to whom much is given--much is required" is all I can think of---Glen Owens
