“ Jimmy was a great person. We worked together at AAA and he always had a big smile and a kind word for me each day. He will be greatly missed.

“ Some years ago, Jim gave some fancy socks to my Dad. After my Dad passed there were a few pairs that had not been used and they were handed down to me. This provided me a constant reminder of Jim and it still does to this day.

“ Uncle Jimmie (my Dad’s brother) was and always will be my favorite!! He came to “hang out” with bongo drums and a black turtle neck back in the 80s when I was a philosophy student at university, ‘said he wanted to “catch the vibe”. He had such a big spirit who loved God. I’m so thrilled I had just seen him in person. I will miss him forever but am so glad he’s with the rest of the family he was born into now.
