“ *John was a good person inside and out. He was very humble and promised me that he would complete the Skills for Life Program for himself and his children. I made sure I kept consistent contact with John even when he didn't call back. I let him know at all times he was not alone. John was afraid to reach out to me but has his Career Coach I had his back no matter what. I hate that he never called me back the last time we spoke. You will be truly missed rest in heaven...
