“ 25 of my 30 years you loved me unconditionally! Daddy I miss youuuuu 😭 We didn't even get a chance to say goodbye. I am so sorry 😞 I'll continue to visit your grave so we can keep those good conversations going. You are literally my hero! Dae'John misses his Granddaddy! Losing you left a hole in my heart & now Ma in Heaven w/ you I don't know what to do! I wish you could see your grandson, he caramel skin with big beautiful hazel eyes and a smile that would light up the room just like you. I am in such disbelief but I'm going to always honor you. We love you forever and a day Daddy!

“ My favorite memory of Great Uncle John was when I was little. My Dad, (Linwood Holliday), would take me to the airport to pick him up when he would come from San Diego. We would watch the planes take off until he got off the plane. Both my Dad and Uncle John would light up their beautiful smiles when they saw each other. Then it was off to Cousin Ruth, Grandma Lille, and Great Aunt Bonnie's houses ; so they could feed him the big feast they each had prepared. My Dad enjoyed playing Golf and going out to eat with him. I went once to the golf course. I still need to learn..lol. He gave me big hugs when I would see him. He was a gentle soul. He made everyone so happy when he came HOME. I love you. I will miss you. I'm so glad I saw you for your birthday. Your siblings and cousins have been waiting to celebrate you once again. RIH Angel.
