“ Amanda and Alicia I couldn't believe when I heard. I had been calling and texting hoping Johnnita would answer the phone. I wish I could be there with y'all. I wanted to come up in February but I was working. Well anyway if you guys need me I request you as a friend on Facebook. She always called me Deborah Ann. I have pictures of your guys before I left Detroit. Love y'all

“ My Johnnita, I can't believe I am writing this memory without u here to laugh with me. We use to tell people that did not really know us that I was your oldest daughter but Bad was not my Dad but claimed me as his own and he would play along too to throw people off! U were on the porch when my mother came home from the hospital with me and that was the beginning of our "familyship"!!! I LOVE U SO MUCH JOHNNITA! This hurts differently because u were the glue that held it down everywhere u were. "Excuse me, this is Bloomfield Hills...u better get it together"...lol..Now say Hi to Nana for me and rest up u earned it! 🥺💕

“ I have so many beautiful memories of Johnnita from childhood to adulthood. I remember when Johnnita attended Barbizon Model School. Her first job at the bank to her last position at the FBI. The birth of her daughters that she cherished, to her grand daughter that had her wrapped around her FINGER, she would say she doesn't but we all knew. She was kind but sterned and only wanted the BESTTTTTTTTT for her family. I will miss her smile and the talks over in the corner of the family event if only for 5 minutes. She had a way of saying your name like noone else. I will miss her FOREVER. REST IN PARADISE JOHNNITA, MY SISTERFRIEND.

“ Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.” “Yes,” says the Spirit, “they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them.” Nita was a wonderful friend and I will miss her. It is not death to die, To leave this weary road and join the saints who dwell on high. Who've found their home with God.
