“ Johnny was always so pleasant to be around. He party real hard at his 80th birthday party. Johnny had some smoothe dance moves. Johnny always made me and my husband feel welcome. Annette enjoyed having fun with Johnny. Raymond and I will truly miss the fun and kindness Johnny showed us. We're praying that God will bring comfort and peace to Annette and the rest of the family and friends of Johnny.

Johnny was a super friend he would do work for me that he thought I needed and would not accept any payment. Johnny invited my wife and I to meet his wife, Annette. He was always in an uplifted mood. He will surely be missed by all.

My uncle Johnny was wise and helpful and he took good care of my beloved Aunt Annette; I enjoyed eating breakfast and several good home cooked meals. This couple is very special to me because they frequently entertained my mom, the late Janis E. Johnson
