Joseph R. Hastings, born on January 23, 1951, in Indianapolis, Indiana, peacefully transitioned to be with his Lord on June 2, 2023.

Joe was the cherished 3rd child of Daniel & Rosia Mary Hastings, who preceded him in death.

Joe graduated from Shortridge HS in Indianapolis in 1969. He met Cordell, the love of his life in 1972. Married in 1974, he was a loving husband of 49yrs to Cordell and blessed with 3 adored children.

As a devoted father, Joe was a Scout Master and baseball & basketball coach . He made almost every game/event of his children.

Joe was a great cook & grill-master and loved to see people eat to their full. A well respected neighbor, he was always willing to help.

Renowned for his brilliance with numbers. Joe's 30 yr career spanned Blue Cross/Blue Shield & General Motors working mostly in Payroll. After retiring, he was asked to work as a Consultant which he embraced for two years.

Foremost, Joe will be remembered for his profound love for his family. He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Cordell Hastings, his sons Joseph R. Hastings II (Ashanttii), Tyrus J. Hastings (Kari), and daughter, Alicia M. Merkel (Nicholas)

His 7 grandchildren, Cory Fairer, Caleb Fairer, Karis Hastings, Danielle Hastings; Olivia Merkel, Ava Merkel, Emma Merkel; 6 siblings: Malinda Jackson (Rev. Charles Jackson); Rosia Fields (Charlie); Darla Stevens;

Ronald Hastings (Cheryl); Gina Neely (Timothy) host of nieces, nephews, cousins & relatives.

“ I'll always remember Joe as gracious but shy when I met at a Detroit Church of Christ service with Cordell many years ago. He was a loyal faithful husband who loved his family and took excellent care of them as Cordell worked by his side. He is deeply loved by his family and Joe finally being with God at peace is a gift that will comfort them for the rest of their lives! You made it Joe! Hallelujah
