“ Joyce will be sadly missed. She was the BEST instructor at Wayne County Community College. Her technique's encouraged you to problem solve and come up with BEST solutions and answers. BEST is the concept of practice around Occupational Therapy and how services are delivered. I was fortunate enough to get a double dose of her wisdom and mentor ship as I worked as her secretary during college work study. The world of Occupational Therapy will not be the same without her.

Joyce was a great Occupational Therapy Instructor who shared her wisdom and practice with all her students, she was a great mentor and life coach. Joyce and I became good friends throughout the years and we always enjoyed connecting with each other either by phone or by visits . I am blessed to have had such a good friend who I will miss dearly, shall remember her always. Rest well in Paradise my friend Joyce and we shall meet again one day. My deepest Sympathy for Joyce neice Rochelle and family, prayers for Gods continuous blessings upon you.

“Joyce Packer an Occupational Therapist of more than 40 years has crossed over. She used her abilities and love of music as a trained Harpist to inspire, mentor, advise and engage students professionally and spiritually. Joyce shared her skills as practitioner and musician in many ways including as an Occupational Therapy Professor and Director at Wayne County Community College, and as Wayne County Community College Occupational Therapy Choral and Dance Group Director. After leaving WCCC she went on to develop the Macomb Community College Occupational Therapy Assistant Program and a Director of Occupational Therapy. Before transitioning to education she worked as a therapist at Sinai Hospital. She was devoted therapist known for a frankness in encouraging and supporting colleagues as well as a devoted sister and aunt. Michigan Black Occupational Therapy Caucus acknowledges and embraces Joyce Packers dedication to the Occupational Therapy profession.
