“ Joye and I were coworkers for many years. We lost touch when she retired and I just felt I should search for her and I'm so sad to find that she's left us. I loved her warm spirit and willingness to help others. She was a loving and compassionate person ... rest well ...

“ My sincere condolences and prayers go out for the family of Joye, didn't know that on the 21st of May would be our last conversation but at least I told you that I loved you my friend. Will miss talking to you but I have memories to cherish from when we first met as kids. Rest well my friend, love you.

“ My deepest condolences and prayers of peace, comfort and strength to all the family and friends as Joye transitions to be with the Lord. My heart is saddened by her loss and I hate that I haven't seen my cousin in many years but I smile when I think of our times spent together when we were younger. Those visits were really precious times and I thank God for them. Love you all and rest in heavenly peace Joye. God Bless You ❤️🙏🏻

“ My wife Nada and I never got the chance to meet Mrs. Acheampong, but from spending time with her kids Aletia and Mary it is clear how beautiful of a person she had to be to raise them. They have been nothing but blessings. We sincerely wish love, peace, and comfort for the entire family. To Aletia, her husband Mike, and sister Mary, don't hesitate to reach out to us. We love you.
