“ *Hey mom,
I love you so much. I will miss calling you asking what are you doing? Where are you going? And you saying none of my business.lol I will miss you calling me saying you are about to pull up be outside. I going to miss goin to the casino getting food. Having our talks about any and everything. You loved me and your grand kids so much. You were able to see your great grand daughter turn one years old. Baby you got to live your life to the fullest. You were always honest, direct and didn't take no mess from no one and I thank you for showing me the way on how to be. And how to treat others even when they did wrong. Love is always in your heart and will forever be in mines. You were a great teacher and example of what a strong woman is supposed to be. Mother I thank you for my life and yours because without you I would not exist. You are my angel, tell my dad I said hi and I will see you both in due time. Love always Tiff, your baby girl 🙌💙💚💙*

“ Mom,
I will miss our laughing and eating sherbert ice cream while talking on the phone about our TV shows. Although you were in Detroit and I was in Houston, we stayed in constant communication via phone and texts. Your tireless energy and willingness to help others helped me to become the Social Worker that I am today. It's your time to rest now Mom. Darwin, Tiffany and myself are going to be just fine.

Love, your 1st born,
