“ *Cousin Judy and my mom were more like sisters. I will always remember the times when we would go to visit her and most often she was in her robe. But I later learned that she worked at one of the auto plants so she'd getting her rest in before going to work. I will always remember the sound her laugh and her beautiful smile. Cousin alway kept in contact with my mom and when she couldn't reach her, she would call me to find out where she was and how she was doing. That's ❤️.
Cousin, you will be missed. We will keep your memory alive. We love you eternally*

“ *To Rhonda, Lewis, Nicole, Carolyn and Diane,
My heartfelt condolences go out to each of you.
Judy and my sister Joanne have been friends since 1952.
While I was visiting Detroit last summer, Joanne and I had the opportunity to visit Judy and spend an afternoon with her. It was like no time had passed since our last visit, which had been 35 years prior.
I pray that God's comfort will be with you and give you strength during this difficult period.
Love and Blessings,
Janice Blackman*
