

Julius Blue

November 7, 1943 - May 6, 2019

He set me free

If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy, A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Oh yes things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow, My life's been full, I've savored much, Good friends, good times, a loved ones' touch. Perhaps my times seem all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief, Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now – He set me free.

"A Letter from Heaven"

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see, If the sun should rise and find your eyes filled with tears for me. I wish you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, For every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.

From The Family

We deeply appreciate your kind expressions of sympathy in our time of great sorrow. We know the pain will decrease and what will remain will always be. Love all who you hold dear, precious is the time you share, do not wait for tomorrow for tomorrow may not be..... Thank you for keeping us in your thoughts and prayers.

– The Blue Family

A Remembrance of Life

Julius Robert Blue was born on November 7, 1943 in Drew, Mississippi. He was the youngest of twelve children born to the late Ananise and Lela M. Blue.

Like many young and hopeful southern born Black American's of his day Julius (better known to family as Ju'baby) migrated north to Detroit, Michigan with great expectations of creating a better future for himself.

Julius gained employment with The Ford Motor Company working there for a number of years as a general laborer.

Julius would later meet Dorothy Cantrell and together they birthed two beautiful children; Tina Maria and Derrick Blue. Julius is also the proud father of an elder daughter Mary Lee.

A quiet and soft-spoken soul Julius departed this life on May 6, 2019 at Beaumont Wayne Hospital.

Ju-baby leaves to remember and celebrate his life his family and friends.

Footprints in the Sand

One night I dreamed... I was walking along the beach with the Lord. Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky. In each scene I noticed footprints in the sand. Sometimes there were two sets of footprints, Other times there was one set of footprints. This bothered me because I noticed That during the low periods of my life, When I was suffering from anguish, sorrow or defeat, I could see only one set of footprints. So I said to the Lord, "You promised me Lord, That if I followed you, you would walk with me always. But I have noticed that during the most trying periods of my life There has only been one set of footprints in the sand. Why, when I needed you most, have you not been there for me?" The Lord replied, "The times when you have seen Only one set of footprints in the sand, is when I carried you." ---Mary Stevenson

“ Such a kind a gentle man was my Uncle Julius. I remember when he came to live with with big sister, Pinkie, my mother. He was quiet and sincere and didn't bother a soul. I'm not sure what type of life he lived beyond that, but I sincerely hope it was not met with too much adversity. It is my hope that we all live a peaceful, enjoyable life during our short time here on earth.

May you rest in peace uncle with our loved one's in Heaven.
