“ 💔 God fearing! And filled. I'm so very proud of the man Justin became. I'll always hold dear our heartfelt conversation and seeing how you touched people lives. Your compassion radiated from you in that smile. I know God doesn't make mistakes, the flesh of me wanted you to stay. I know you're in the kingdom with our father. I'll keep an eye on auntie Diane. You keep an eye on all of us, give us a nudge to keep us going. 💜

“ My condolences to the family. I met him through Cristyn when I got invited to family events. Every time I interacted with him, he always had a big smile on his face and made me feel welcome. I have fond memories of the family's visit to DC and loved hanging out with him and his boys.

“ Justin, I am at a loss for words man....

We didn't talk all the time but you were a genuine friend. You were always a phone call away offering advice, a listening ear, a laugh or just a referral lol. You knew everyone that knew how to do everything lol. I still can believe that you are gone. NOTHING could have told me that you wouldn't pull through but God has a greater plan. My dear friend, you will never be forgotten. See ya later, big head lol. Rest well.

“ Justin, I have come to this page everyday to leave a tribute to you. And everyday I am lost for words....

I met you when I was just 17 years old and from then to now you have always remained the same genuine, silly friend. I thank you for your friendship and also that you for being my daughter godfather. I honestly thought that this situation was going to be so different; prayed and asked God to heal you and let his will be done. Ultimately not realizing that his will was for you take your rest and go home to our Father in Heaven. Justin as hard as it is to accept, your job here was done and we must love you enough to let you rest. Job well done sir, take your rest knowing that you gave your all to every life you touched. Rest well my friend.

“ I feel like the wind was knocked out of me. I was selfish when I asked God to heal you — I didn't want you to leave. Although our time together was brief, we bonded and kept in touch. Your presence made going to work easier, the sun shine brighter; the air lighter and many hearts at ease. THANK YOU for the laughs. THANK YOU for the listening ear. THANK YOU for being dependable. THANK YOU for being a flower in my garden. JUSTIN, THANK YOU FOR BEING AUTHENTIC TO YOU.

I thank God for sharing you with us.

“ Justin was one of the most hardworking men I have ever known. He did not mind working. Because he was doing it for his boys. They were his entire world. And he loved and adored his mother. He was so caring about others. I just saw him over the holiday, and was as happy as ever. He will so be missed.
