“ Kay was such a good friend to my family. I have such great memories from childhood of the trips to Rondeau Bay, Ont., with her mom and her daughter Kris, who remains one of my dearest friends.

Such a sweet, warm, open personality who always gave me a feeling of being one of her own.

My deepest condolences and wishes of solace and love to her family.

All my best,

Joey Gray

“ Sometimes when you inherit an Aunt thru a marriage there isnt a family type bond, Kay treated me always like a member of her family and her wisdom and guidance throughout my adolescence, helped me to achieve the best I could of hoped for. A sympathetic ear was not my Aunt Kay, but a blunt and honest truth was the advise you would get, which was never sugar coated. I celebrate the life you led and with mercy, glad that your pain and suffering is over. You will be missed with love your nephew George Tipton
