*Keith had a unique and wonderful way of connecting with folks. He was all heart and enthusiasm. His humor and laugh affected everyone that he touched. He made a difference.
Keith is in a better place now. Prayers for peace and comfort , especially for his soulmate, Yo, and all those closest to him.*

I haven't seen Keith in nearly thirty years.However,I would think about him from time to time. He was just one of those few good-natured guys that you couldnt forget.I will miss him.
