“ I'm still in shock of the passing of Ken. I started attending the Sunday School class that Ken was one of the co-teachers. He was very knowledgeable of the Bible and brought positive energy to the class, and great snacks. I knew when Ken was teaching, the class room would be filled with family and friends. Everyone was blessed by Ken's teaching. We had a running joke in class, Ken would tell me to hush before I said anything. Somethings, even when he was not teaching, he tell me to hush because I always had something to share. I'm going to miss Ken. He and his wife Sylvia were the picture of an ideal couple and family. I'm praying for Sylvia and Ken's entire family. Rest in the arms of the Lord

“ To the Warren family:
May God strengthen and encourage you at this difficult time. Ken and I were fellow School Social Workers at DPS/DPSCD and he was my supervisor for several years. Before I came to the district, I attended a daylong conference held by the special education department. Ken was a workshop presenter. I was so impressed by his knowledge and skill. I knew the social work department was superlative. Once I joined the district, I saw Ken's dedication to youth and young black males. As my supervisor, I learned a lot from him. We disagreed at times but continued the work at hand. Then, I found out we grew up in the same Krainzwood/Conant Gardens neighborhood of Detroit. We “talked shop” about the neighborhood, Pershing and families we knew in common. Most of all, Ken was a man of faith and a believer who was not ashamed to share his love of God. He has now received his eternal reward. Hold strong to precious memories; Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning.
