

Kimberly Kay Atwater

October 7, 1961 - November 6, 2025

Kimberly Atwater, born in Saginaw, Michigan, finished her race, & entered into eternal rest on November 6, 2025. Known to many as a devoted wife, mother, loving “Lolli,” sister, auntie and dear friend, Kimberly was the strongest woman we’ve ever known.

Her legacy will live on through her beloved children, Julian (Jessica), Karmen Wettlin, and Rasheed (Auriel) Atwater as well as her cherished grandchildren, Cameron and Elexander Wettlin & Aniyah Atwater siblings, Tracy (Melody), Lailletha, Bridgette (Leonard), Arthell, Jaymie, and Aprille. Mother of the heart, May Woods, Aunts Barbara McClellon, Ronna Stokes and Uncle Robert Moe Woods and many more adored cousins nieces, nephews and friends.

Kimberly poured her heart into everyone she met and made everything she touched beautiful. Her strength, warmth, and memory will continue to live on in all who loved her.

Many loved ones including her mother Joyce and father James, Grandmothers Dorothy Bell & Elizabeth Woods, husband Bernard, and son Rashad Atwater will reunite with her at the gates to usher her into perfect peace. Her faith in God and dedication to love those around her, reflected a grace beyond measure.

“ Kim was my Best Friend of 30 some odd years
We did so many things together. Even when she move back to Saginaw we would try to link up. Like meet up at Great Lakes crossing or I would go spend the weekends with her . But to loose her is so very heartbreaking 💔 I'am really going to miss her.
I'm so glad I got to spend her last days with her 🌸

“ *To the Family,
I have so many fun memories of Kim, to many to share. What I do know is she loved her family with all her heart. She worked hard to make sure her children had everything they needed and knew they were loved. Her grans, Cam and El will remember how special "Lolli" was which is evident by her children Julian and Karmen. Take your rest Kim knowing you will be missed and loved always. ❤️🕊️*
