“ Extending my sincerest condolences to the Lyles/Smith family. I had the pleasure of working with Kim in different roles at AT&T. She was always professional, helpful, and knowledgeable. I visited family in Detroit in 2018, and got to meet her in person. She welcomed me in her home, and we ate, drank, laughed, and talked for hours. It was like we had known each other forever. There are not many people like Kim that you will meet in life. She will be really missed both professionally and personally. Rest in peace

“ Kim was one of the only people who didn't care anything about my “comfort zone”. I can honestly say that in the 20 or so years that I have known her, she always stood firmly on the idea of “You'll thank me later” and without a doubt I always did. I have always had the highest respect for Kim because she never asked anything of anyone that she would not have done herself. I am so grateful to have known her and so incredibly grateful for every push she ever gave me. She will most definitely be missed.
