

Kirkwood A. Coleman

February 5, 1962 - November 12, 2021

Kirkwood A. Coleman made his transition on November 12, 2021. Please encourage the Coleman family with words of love and encouragement on our Tribute page. To send flowers or a memorial gift to the family of Kirkwood Coleman please visit our Sympathy Store.

Kirkwood Allen Coleman was born on February 5, 1962 in Detroit, Michigan. He was known to most as Kirk. Kirk was born to the loving union of James and Ludeal to whom both preceded him in death. This union gave birth to three sons James (Jim), Kirk and DeMal Sr. whom preceded him in death. Kirk accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age. He was a member of Hartford Memorial Baptist Church. Kirk graduated from Cass Technical High School in Detroit, Michigan and continued on to Morehouse College, later graduating from Marygrove College with a Bachelor's of Arts degree in English.

Kirk met the love of his life Ms. Myrna L. Roney of Detroit, Michigan which resulted in becoming his loving and devoted wife. They were joined in holy matrimony on July 13, 2002. Kirk and Myrna were dedicated to each other until his sunset on November 12, 2021.

Kirk loved spending time with his wife Myrna, friends and family. Kirk truly loved cooking which became a passion. He was a gifted writer in which he published "Sins of the Fatha". Kirk's passion for the outdoors gave birth to his entrepreneurial spirit in which he owned and operated his successful residential and commercial landscaping business. Kirk also worked in law enforcement until his early retirement.

I just learned of Kirk's passing less than an hour ago. He and I were classmates at Cass Tech in the art department. I'm still somewhat in shock from the news. I extended my deepest condolences to the Coleman family. May Allah be pleased with Brother Kirk.

“ The news of my cousin's passing was shocking to me but he was the coolest person I've ever known. I loved hanging out with Uncle James and all 3 of his sons when I was a kid. This is a hard day for everyone but God is still good.
