“ I Love YOU Sooo Much. I have soo many fun and fond memories of you. From Re carrying you in her womb, your birth, your first taste of cookies and a sucker, to your first walk, first words just sooo much! You have grown up to be such a Beautiful, Affectionate Loving Man & Father. I, We as a family are soo Blessed to have you as a part of our family. May your Legacy and Love be carried on through your children, as We WILL carry you on in our daily lives. There will not be moment were We are not thinking of you. We Miss You Dearly Jay! See you in Paradise!

“ I only learned of Larry when he came to my brother's funeral (Lowell). We bonded immediately and have been trying to keep in touch since. My heart is hurting because we did not have enough time. My prayer and desire is to stay in touch with his mother, children and friends that I might get to know him through them. Lovingly Aunt Tina
