

Larry Dwayne Johnson

August 7, 1952 - May 17, 2020

Larry Dwayne Johnson was born August 7, 1952 in Detroit, Michigan to Ophelia Johnson and Tommie Peterson. Larry graduated from Detroit Northern High School and attended Wayne State University, which led to a career as a journeyman electrician at Ford Motor Company and later a high voltage electrician at Rouge Steel. In 1973, he married his high school sweetheart, Maxine Johnson. From this union, their daughter, Candice, was born. He married his soulmate, LaDonna McQueen in 1995. Together, they welcomed a son, Larry, and a daughter, Crystal. Their union was tragically cut short with LaDonna's passing in 1999. In 2007, he married Pamela Cobb. Larry was also blessed with a son, Justin, from a previous relationship.

In his younger years, Larry was very athletic. He ran track for his high school team and continued to run as well as ride his bike on Belle Isle Park recreationally for many years. He was also a very good basketball player. Even in his 50's, he could dominate the 20-somethings on the court. He enjoyed working, spending time with family and friends, doing home improvement projects, cooking, and keeping up with fashion trends. Everyone who knew Larry knew he could grow a head of healthy and long hair. In his later years, Larry's mobility became limited, so he developed good friendships with residents in his apartment building. Many of the residents enjoyed spending time with him, admired his sense of humor and how well he dressed, and appreciated his kindness, as he was always willing to give money to or buy food for a friend in need. Affectionately referred to as “PawPaw” by his grandchildren, Larry enjoyed being a grandfather and appreciated visits from his grandchildren very much.

Larry leaves to cherish his memory his mother, Ophelia Murray; children, Candice Washington (Terry), Justin Price (Bianca), Larry Johnson, Jr., and Crystal Johnson; his siblings, Wanda Clemons (Curtis), Lillian Baker, Edwin Murray, and Diana Collins (Darrin); his grandchildren, Justin Price, Jr., TaShya Johnson, Paradise Johnson, and Nicholas and Amber Washington; nephews, nieces, great-nephews, a great-niece, cousins, and dear friends.

Larry was preceded in death by his wife, LaDonna Johnson, and brothers, William Johnson, Roosevelt Johnson, and Willie Murray.

“ My Big Brother Larry! I have so many memories of us together growing up. We compared our large afro's together. We went to basement parties and cabarets. He always thought that he was the best dancer and dresser. I must admit he was. Down my memory lane with my brother I can recall his happiness during his marriage to Maxine and LaDonna and his special relationship. Although he was not perfect, there were some wonderful times. That came to truth as he was blessed with four beautiful children. They are all blessed in there special way. I love you my nieces and nephews. Stay strong, think of the good times, and most of all put GOD in your daily walk he will guide you.

“ , Even tho she's only briefly mentioned in the obituary my mom PAMELA COBB was in a 17-year relationship with my beloved stepfather before getting married in 2007. Larry was the only father I've known because my father passed when I was a year old. When he met my mom I was 10. And he has always been there for me. He and my mom were married soon after his 1st health scare...My mom took really good care of him and nursed him back to health along with the grace of GOD. And continued to care for him up until their divorce in 2015 do to circumstances beyond their control...Just a few details I thought I should share. With that being said I appreciate everything you ever have done for me. You will truly be missed but never forgotten, Love Your Favorite Stepdaughter, TAMIKA COBB.

“ My relationship with my dad was not perfect, but it was ours. I wish as a kid we could have spent more time together, but I am thankful for the good times we had. He taught me how to drive in his big Ford F-150 pickup truck, which was scary at the time, but it made me a confident driver. He taught others in the family how to drive, too. I guess he was the go-to driving instructor. I am thankful for the lessons he taught me on the basketball court. I knew if he and I played a game of 21 and I let him make just one basket, he would win the game from the free throw line. That taught me to step up my game. I miss him and will always love him.
