“ I met Larry in the fall of 1987 when he was appointed the new GM-10 Program Manager for Buick. I'd been at GM-10 for two years at that point, and Larry and I quickly realized we shared a love of auto racing and muscle cars, and became fast friends. He was my closest friend at GM during my final years there, and we continued to talk on the phone probably once a month after I left for Nissan in the spring of 1991. He notified me of his business trips to the left coast in the 1990s and 2000s, and we were able to get together for a few hours when he was out this way. I last saw him when I had to make a trip to Detroit in the spring of 2007, and he showed me around the changes to the GM Tech Center. We were of the same mind on so many things. I miss him a lot, but nowhere near as much as his family. My most sincere condolences to Larry's family and friends.

“ I remember how Larry made me feel. If he was having a day at work where he was sharing the frustrations that were getting to him, I was able to empathize but the way he shared never brought me down. I never saw him angry. He was always pleasant and that is how I will remember him.

“ I had the pleasure to work with Larry on the Luxury Vehicle Line team. Larry was very knowledgeable and passionate about his vehicles and even more so with those he worked with. Larry always had a smile and quick wit (often a story). He helped me learn a lot and was a strong team member. My thoughts and prayers are with his family. I look forward to hearing more of his stories when we get to heaven (our ultimate goal). Until then, peace my friend.

“ Larry was intellectual, pragmatic, positive humorous, and true American muscle car and Green Bay Packers loyalist from back in the days growing in Winter Park, Florida. Larry knew his stuff. By the way... he too was a good trombone player in the marching Bobcats band of Hungerford High. You will be deeply missed but ironically and respectfully remembered Larry.

“My deepest condolences to the entire Singleton family. Larry and I were neighbors and schoolmates through Hungerford High and I'll always remember the numerous jokes he told, but most of all I'll remember his thoughtfulness and the many encouraging texts that he shared during the past year. May the love and peace of our Savior be with you all.

“ Larry Thomas Singleton ,
a former High School classmate: Was smart, loving and funny.
During time in school, Julis Lias and Von Collins, were best of friends and their relationship they went through thick and thin matters together. Where you see one you you would see the other.
Larry’s heart was extended to others and his family meant the world to him. He blended well with others and not to leave off, “LARRY WAS A CLASSY MAN AND GENTLE, MAN TO LADIES”. What was most outstanding was, being a fair person in decision making Larry, you will be missed completely and I know you have it into God’s Glory.
Sincerely,
Renée J Banks, Ransom

“ For as long as I can remember, my morning routine involved calling Larry on my drive in to work. Although we were separated by thousands of miles and were physically together only a handful of times, I consider him one of my closest friends. We talked about sports, our shared collectibles, politics, health and family. Although the events of the world would upset us, he never had an unkind thing to say about anyone. I valued his advice and perspective and will always remember his many sayings (e.g. "What borders insanity? Canada and Mexico). Although I cannot come to Michigan to honor him and share memories, I will be there in spirit. My deepest sympathies to the entire Singleton family, Jeff Sosne

“ Larry and I were friends for 50 years. I first met him at Fisher Body of GM. We quickly became good friends. He was in my wedding in 1974.

He introduced me to watching college and pro basketball , which we both enjoyed. We shared life experiences like children , grandchildren and his first Corvette.

He was a close long term friend I could count on . He will truly be missed by me.

My condolences to the family

“ Larry always had a sense of humor that would really cheer me up. He and I was part of the Old Guys group that would meet up monthly for breakfast. We both are from Florida so we called each other "home boys". We would talk about family, sports, work and life in general. I will surely miss my dear friend. My thoughts and prayers are with the family as you go through the healing process.

“ My sincere regards to the Singleton family. Larry was like a brother to our family as well as a great friend & schoolmate. We shared many fond memories of our school days at Hungerford High in Eatonville FL. He graduated with my cousin & we appreciate the kindness he & others shared during her illness before she died in 2016. God bless you family and I pray for your courage & strength.
