“ shana was always so caring. No matter what she was going through she always had time for my bs. When I had surgery she was at the hospital, checking on me, making sure I was good. I had won some passes to the radio station and we took the bus out there. It was to meet this beat boxer named Ballzee. Anyway we took the bus about an hour and was cracking up the whole way. She was always saying you so damn silly. Girl I will miss you. David and your family have our prayers.

My little cousin... I am still in disbelief. Not long ago we were chatting and liking each others FB posts.i remembered you in Auntie's stomach and the smile you gave her even then-a-smile you carried through life, into married, and dreams of traveling the world. Babygirl, you will deeply be missed-your- quirkiness, your love, and especially your smile! May, God continue to watch over David and your family. TIA REST EASY❤️
