“ I was writing about Laurel for the Vassar Alumni news, and realized there is a photo of her as a young woman graduating from Vassar in 1970. In the photo she is holding Lisa, age 5 months. But the photo has Laurel's last name wrong. In case you are interested in seeing the picture of her, the link to the article is <https://timesmachine.nytimes.com/timesmachine/1970/06/01/80029371.html?pageNumber=31>

My deep condolences for your loss. I am sorry that I did not know her when we were classmates. Everything I have read about her makes me realize what an amazing person she was.

*warm best wishes to all of her family

“ My heartfelt condolences to Leonard, Lisa and other family members dealing with Laurel's sudden and tragic passing. I cannot begin to tell you the level of respect and admiration I had for her - not just as a tremendous trial lawyer and valued partner at Plunkett Cooney but more importantly as a dear friend and colleague who truly lived and exemplified her deep faith in God in all that she did and said. In 35 years, I don't think I every heard her utter a negative thought or word about anyone or anything. I have many fond memories of our long discussions about everything from recruiting young lawyers, mentoring existing associates, her work in recent years as a GAL and most recently, our mutual obsession with the TV show FBI on which her beautiful niece Katherine plays the character Tiffany. I will truly miss her gentle spirit, kind nature, bright smile and spirited laugh. The world is a lesser place without her in it. My thoughts and prayers are with you all as you process this tremendous loss. Fondly, Carolyn Jereck

“ Laurel was a very unique individual. She was a tough litigator, while at the same time was a caring & wonderful individual. A very unique combination. On top of those attributes, she always had a good word. May she RIP.

“ I wanted to express my deepest sympathy to Laurel's family, she was a great lawyer, I had the pleasure of sitting as her second in my last trial at the Detroit Law Department and I learned more from her in one trial than from any other lawyer I have ever known. Beyond being a great trial lawyer, she was one of the nicest individual's I've ever known, I always enjoyed hearing from her over the years and I will miss hearing from her.

“ A beautiful lady through and through, Laurel was admired and respected by all. I was honored and blessed to be her “suite-mate” at Plunkett Cooney when I was a young lawyer for a short time. I could not have chosen a better mentor than Laurel. My deepest sympathies to Leonard and family.

“ It has been my honor to have called Laurel a friend since I met her at Plunkett Cooney in 2001. She has been an uplifting and steadying influence in my life and that of my family, Sherry Spence and Megan, our daughter. I witnessed Laurel handle difficult situations as an attorney with grace and ease. Her light in this world will shine bright in the next, I am sure. With love to Leonard and to Lisa, and the whole sphere of folks who will be missing her terribly. Trusting to see Laurel again on the other side! --Rebecca Spence (formerly Rebecca Major)

“ Dearest Family:

We all know that Laurel was Leonard's tick to his tock. My brother loved Laurel ever so much.

And....it was our honor to be her sisters-in-law (there were four of us) all of these years.

She will remain forever in my heart/memories.

*With heartfelt sincerity,
Carolyn Washington*
