“ My dearest aunt Ledell, I cannot count the times you and uncle Jessie rode up and down the highway to New Orleans and Woodville, MS. What a time, what a time we would have. You have earned your wings and lived a life full of love and joy. You lived a long life, although I will miss you, your beautiful smile, heart full of love and compassion, and your extraordinary laughter. I will try not to cry, as I will dance like David did to celebrate a life well lived. Rest in heaven and continue to watch over us all.
Love, your niece: Geraldine Anderson/ NOLA

Aunt Ledall , you were always a gem. I remember all the times you and Uncle Jessie would come to MS and we would go to Natchez. We would eat at burger king and then go to get your nail polish because you were a true Diva. You will truly be missed. Sleep on take your rest. We Love you but God said it is time to take your rest Love Lisa / Brandon Ms
