“ Lenora was a very special person. We went to high school together and lived in the same neighborhood as teenagers. I used to drive her to school, and she would sometimes braid my hair so my Afro would look good. Such a sweet person. My condolences to her family. She will be missed 🙏 Sincerely, Keith Cage

Praying for your brothers and of course, my friends since middle school, James & Chyna and their beautiful children, your grands and all your wonderful family and close friends! You looked out for me in so many ways and I'm so glad you knew I loved and appreciated you because I told you! My heart is heavy but my shoulders are strong and I'll be here for you all always

“ We were supposed to bowl in this year's postal. I met most of my team via text due to the pandemic. Well Ms. Lenora made quite an impression. I called her glamor girl since she sent me all kinds of beautiful 'glamor' shots of herself so I'd know who she is. I'll never forget her. I hate I couldn't bowl in this year's event and really get to spend time with her but our conversations were great. You will greatly be missed!!

I had honor of bowling with my sister in 2019 at the postal tournament..... You never know how & why people come into your life (but God does). We haven't seen each other since.....my memories are special to me because she was special to me...she made you feel that way no matter who you were! My prayers go out to the family. May the Holy Ghost comfort you during this time & may the Lord keep you in perfect peace! Tears of joy, for her LOVE will never die! ❤️

“Lenorra we met over 30 years ago while working at the Post Office. In our first conversation, I told you I was going to call you "G" for G-money. As time goes on, you told me you were going to be a grandmother, I said ok "G" now stands for grandma. A few years ago at a gathering, someone called you Gucci because of the shoes you were wearing, I said you are still "G' Gucci. "G" you were also a Godly woman, Good friend and Great human being and I will forever cherish the memories and conversations. I'm going to finish this the way you and I finished every conversation and that's by expressing our love for each other.....Love You G Shelley
