“ Lillian
L- loving, lovely
I- intelligent
L- loyal
L -laughter (best humor)
I - independent
A - angelic
N - no-nonsense

Lillian was a true friend of mine since childhood.
I took my first Caribbean cruise with her and Timisha...we had a blast!!!
Lillian and I had so much fun over the years. Many memories of hanging out in downtown Detroit and meeting guys. We laughed so much!!!!
I will forever treasure our friendship. The secrets, laughs, gains, losses and harsh realities. Love ya and enjoy being in eternal glory in heaven. Tanya Robinson

“ My dear Pookie, I am still so lost for words. You showed so much strength and resilience throughout and I loved that smile and laughter so very much. I will always fondly remember our drive from one shoe store to another in the earlier years whenever I visited and being gifted one or two pairs from your private collection in the later years; I am going to miss those fun times. I am finding comfort knowing that YOU are being comforted by the Heavenly Father and that Aunty Kay and Uncle Maurice are also both holding you tightly in their arms. I love you and will miss you dearly.... Your cousin Judie.

“ Lillian- So beautiful, so kind, so knowledgeable. I was always amazed how you saw life so clear and your advice was so sound. You were one sharp sister! Through the years, you would give me beautiful outfits (that I still have today) and when I would wear them I would send you pictures - I am Lillian today! And when we went to London me and you off together to explore. Your laugh your smile - Lillian I will always have with me. Stay shining! Love you forever, Glenda

“ Lillian was my sister-in-law. She was the bravest woman I've ever known. Lil battled a vicious disease for almost her whole adult life with otherworldly grace. She was kind and funny and always spoke her mind. I loved and will miss her dearly.
