

Lilly (Lilla) Mae Noble

August 11, 1917 - March 4, 2019

REFLECTIONS

LILLA MAE NOBLE

To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under the heaven....

A TIME TO BE BORN: Lilla Mae Noble was born August 11, 1917 in Madisonville, Kentucky, the second daughter of parents Alice Hopson and Nathan Killebrew.

A TIME TO GROW: The family relocated to Indianapolis, Indiana when she was five years old and to Pontiac, Michigan when she was nine years old.

A TIME TO LOVE: She was happily married to her childhood sweetheart, Oscar David Noble, for fifty-six years. To this sacred union, three children, two daughters and one son were born.

A TIME TO PLANT: Lilla, as a teenager was a member of Trinity Baptist Church of Pontiac, Michigan. She recommitted her life to the Lord at St. Mark Presbyterian Church in Detroit under the pastorage of Rev. James E. Wadsworth, Jr. She continued to serve her church and community at Fellowship Chapel and in her beloved sorority, Eta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. In both her church and sorority, Lilla served faithfully, including numerous leadership positions and boards. She exemplified Eta Phi Beta's motto: "Not for ourselves, but for others". She held the honor of being the sorority's oldest active member, and was revered by all chapters.

A TIME TO DEPART: On March 4, 2019, Lilla accepted the call to glory and journeyed to her heavenly home. She was preceded in death by daughter, Alice Elaine Dean and grandson, Gregory Dean. She leaves to cherish her memory and continue her legacy: her daughter, June Clarice Sutton (Edward); her son, David Drummings Noble Sr. (Yvette), grandchildren: David Noble Jr., Mark Sutton and Deborah Noble-Triplett (Gregory), and a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ i loved my grandmother and i am so happy i got to see her late last summer. i told her i was coming to see her and she said she'd 'hold on' for me. grandmother, you helped me understand where my love of shopping and art and style came from. you gave me tough love when i needed it. i love you, like i always told you, and i will miss talking with you as will my family. my daughters and grandchildren are very sad. my girls both said they were just speaking of you yesterday, so you are forever in their hearts. you are loved by us all.
