What an unexpected loss. What a wonderful man who shared a lot of wisdom when asked for his ideas and thoughts. He was such a quiet, non assuming man. He didn't have to brag or show off, just pure class. I envied he and his gorgeous wife's travels. Co-worker at Wayne State, Sheila Greene

Sandra and family, please accept my deepest condolences. I am still having a hard time believing Lord is gone to be with his Savior. Sandra I haven't been able to tell Jordan yet, he will be devastated. May Lord rest in peace.

“ I am saddened to learn of Lord's transition. We met 50 years ago as bowling partners, and later played a little golf too. Our last contact may have been prior to the pandemic. That said, it was always a great day when we heard from each other. Looking back, I could have did a better job of phoning. His friendship was energetic, especially when the topics were family, bowling, travel, retirement and all things Detroit. I will always remember you Lord.

Rest in peace Lord, I R Talbott

“ I work every Fall at the Mike Ilitch School of Business and would stop by the front desk to chat with Lord Gurley. It was always a pleasure to chat with him and share information about the teas out there that we could try. Will miss him this coming fall. Rest in Peace Gurley! Meena
