“ Louise was my sister and my "flower buddy". We would have friendly competitions in our gardens, or we would get pieces of the flowers we enjoyed most and "root" them to grow in our own gardens. My sister loved red geraniums- just the red ones were her favorite. Sometimes we would go to East Market together and the trucks would already be waiting for her. Once she even made the evening news- the "flower lady " of Detroit. I have great memories of her and I love her. Fannie and Johnny would be proud of her life and the beautiful children she raised-I am. You children already know how much your mother loved you so I will just say continue to honor and cherish her memory and make her proud everyday. She was one of the best. I love you all. I am with you in spirit.

“ Louise Napier was one of my dear Aunts; eight sisters in a family of 13 children. I had 7 Aunts; all proud and talented women, and all of them are dear to me. I have very fond memories of them, and they were and are strong influences in my life. They each hold a special, unique and admirable quality that I will cherish for all of my days. Aunt Louise was the one whom I described as "Mother Nature" of the sisters. She had a wholesome beauty. She created richness and beauty in her garden- absolutely every inch of it! She loved the outdoors. I can still see her in that straw sunhat tending her flowers. My memories of going to visit her begin as we arrived in the car, and as we approached her home on Keystone there was just a SEA of these wonderful red geraniums that lined her double-lot yard; hanging all along the fence and e-v-e-r-y-w-h-e-r-e! My child-like eyes widened and my heart seemed to race as I would behold this beautiful sight--that whole property seemed to glow in comparison to the other small houses around it. And, when I read the Bible as I was just a young girl, my own vision of the Garden of Eden, was that it probably looked a lot like my Aunt Louise's house. In later years she would tell me stories of how she liked to go horse-back riding, walking or running. By then she was well into late her 60's. . . (perhaps)--age was but a number, and it was never an indicator, it held no weight or value, it gave no clue to understanding the vibrant, youthful glow on her face; nor the energetic vitality of her mind and spirit that was ever-present throughout her life. I was in awe of this women (and the rest- these 8 women ), and I thank you Auntie for your part, your guidance and your influence in my life; an influence you probably never knew I treasured so much. Oh-h-h, but you should see my red geraniums!! Every year my garden is donned with them and the spirit and beauty of my Aunt Louise. You carved a place in my heart long ago. I love you Auntie. Sleep well now, rest in peace, and may the blessings of the Lord continue to grace you, as memories of your life will me.
