“ Cousins Gregory and Crystal, I am so sorry to hear of mother's transitioning, but yet, I rejoice. I rejoice, because we don't mourn as the world. Instead, we have a blessed hope in the salvific works of Jesus' death, burial and resurrection. I pray that God gives you beauty for your ashes, the oil of joy for your mourning, and the garment of praise for your spirit of heaviness. I love you, your children and the entire family and you're certainly in my prayers. Be strong and of good courage. Your cousin, Elder Charles E. Blair
