Lula Mae "Jane" McLeod was born on December 22, 1935, in Magee, Mississippi, to the late Hollie Leffie Sr. (fondly known as Peter Rabbit) and Lela McLeod. From the very beginning, Lula Mae embodied grace, strength, and an unmistakable flair for life.

After graduating from Magee High School, Lula Mae married the love of her life, Ardis Womack. Together, they embarked on a journey of love and partnership, moving to Flint, Michigan, in the late 1950s to build a life and family.

Lula Mae's determination, independence, and vibrant personality were evident in every aspect of her life. Known for her impeccable style, she had a unique ability to light up any room she entered. Her family and friends will always remember her as a woman of integrity, wit, and a refreshing "tell-it-like-it-is" nature that kept everyone on their toes.

Her faith was the cornerstone of her life. Lula Mae loved the Lord deeply and lived a life of service through her unwavering dedication to the Church of God in Christ (C.O.G.I.C.). She served with excellence as a church nurse, both locally and at the state level, under the leadership of the late Bishop Anderson and the late Bishop Smith of Detroit, Michigan. Her ministry extended beyond the church walls—she was a Holy Ghost-filled missionary who boldly shared God’s word whenever and wherever the Spirit moved her.

Lula Mae was preceded in death by her parents, Hollie and Lela McLeod; her siblings Alice Rae, Hollie Mae, and Hollie Leffie (H.L.) Jr. McLeod; her sister-cousin Katherine (McNair) Price of Flint, Michigan; her nieces Diane of Jackson, Mississippi, and Camille of Richmond, California; and her nephews Maurice of Jackson, Mississippi, and Mitchell of Gulfport, Mississippi.

She leaves behind a legacy of love and faith cherished by her devoted family: her daughter, Katrina Camille (Arthur M.) Myers; her son, Todd Andre (Roshanda A.) Womack; her grandsons Stephen, Nathan, Ngozi, Osei, and Ande; her great-grandson Jericho; and a host of beloved nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Lula Mae touched the hearts of everyone who knew her. Her memory will live on as a testament to her love, strength, and faith. We love you forever, Mama. You will always be in our hearts as we carry on your incredible legacy.

“ Aunt Jane:

Was my Cool Aunt and the person in my life that made me want to travel the world. It was with Aunt Jane, that I took my first flight of my life. She was always lit up the room she was in. Also for those who knew her, she didn't mince her words, but provided great guidance and information for us younger people. She will NEVER be forgotten by many who knew her. May she rest in peace as she joins her family in heaven. Love You Aunt Jane and You will FOREVER be a guiding light in my life. Nephew Deck
