Miss Lena was so good to me when I was a young inflight supervisor at O'Hare. She was funny and always a joy to be around. She will be missed and not forgotten.

“ I'd like to extend my sincerest and most heartfelt expression of sympathy to Lena's loved ones. I met Lena in a hair salon where I was a stylist and she was a client of a fellow stylist. Easygoing,, kind, personable, fashionable, and of course a beautiful globetrotting trendsetter. Lena will be sorely missed

RIP friend.

“ My sincerest condolences to the family and friends of our beloved “Lena”. It was indeed a pleasure to have been a friend and colleague. Lena was truly a beautiful person both inside and out. It was always a pleasure to work with Lena, she was a consummate professional, always pleasant, friendly and helpful. Our loss is heavens gain. She’s earned her wings. Rest well my beautiful queen. Until...

“ To the Chambliss Family
A tribute to Lynnette, a dear friend and sister for over 70 years. The Chambliss’ and Byrds have been the epitome of an extended family of 13 children who experienced stair step relationships between the kids of similar age. Lynnette and I were close friends from grade school to adulthood. To Monica and Jason - your mom was a great lady who really loved you guys and her family very much. Love,
Evelyn and Harry Byrd

“ To the Family of Lynnette "Lena" C. Horne-Hardt,

I am deeply saddened to hear of Lena's passing. She taught me everything about working the galley position,(747)

May you find strength in the cherished memories you shared and solace in the love that surrounds you during this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“Lynette and I met over 50 years ago. We were “the wives” of men who grew up together. Lynette made the best tasting koolaid in the world. We would go over to her house just to drink her koolaid and have great conversation. She was a wealth of knowledge. Lynette, also, had a fine taste in clothes. One day she called me. I was living in Oakland at the time. “Girl, I got an outfit that you’ll love. I’ll meet you in the ladies room at the airport “. We met. I tried it on. Fit to a tee. The suit was fabulous. I rolled it up and put it in my carryon. Hugged her and departed ways. She walked towards her flight and I towards mine. I loved me some Lynette. She was always cheerful, kind, outgoing, caring and helpful. So Lynette, one last request from me. Whisper in the Lord’s ear cause it’s a mess down here- one of hours long conversations that we’ve had. If anyone can do it, it’s you. Miss you, my sister friend. RIH. Marcia

“ Lena was a gift to me and my wife. I was called Officer Shaw by her any time she called the house. Because my wife and she were friends for a long time. I once pulled her over inside the airport as I was on a Segway and she thought she was in trouble until she saw I was her friends husband. The look on her face was priceless when she found out she was not in trouble. That's started calling me Officer Shaw.
