“ My earliest images of Aunt Maggie extend back to the very beginnings of our Birchett family. It was right after my father, Wilbur Birchett, returned from fighting for our country in World War II. Our family, at that time had been living with my grandmother, Hellen Lucille Moore. Once "MyDaddy" got home, Aunt Maggie, made a place for us to live with her until my parents found a residence. Those expressions of kindness extended throughout her life. She will always be remembered and a kind, gentle and loving soul, married to my Uncle Donald Moore, her love, who played a saxophone, until making his transition. Thank you for being one of the pillars of our extended family! Rev. Dr. Colleen Birchett
