I grew up across the street from the Pollards and was best friends with Marie. I always looked up to Sue and Pat (as we called her then). I have many fond memories of them that I cherish. I wanted to attend the service, but was unable to due to illness. My thoughts are with the family today and always. Sending love and prayers.

“ I never got the pleasure of meeting you, but I know you were lovely by how your beloved daughter, Angela, spoke so highly of you and posted about you frequently. You are family and you will be missed by many who love you dearly. Rest easy in the Master's arms...Forever & Always

“ We met through Ancestry.com, we are distant cousins from our families in Elmvale Ontario. We had many pleasant conversations and got to a point where it felt like we had known of each other all our lives. I will miss the sporadic message and posts on my FB page from her. Her family will miss her greatly I am sure. My thoughts and prayers are with them as we travel on through our time here

“ Losing your older sister, confident and friend is like losing the foundation that you built together . My God I miss you , no 2 am calls , no crying on each other’s shoulder and no hugs that went on forever . I feel so cold now . There are many hugs , but none like the ones we shared when we were little girls. Bless you Trisha You are in my heart forever . Thank you also for your beautiful family ., They are loving and , amazing . It really hurts !! The pain goes on..But I am grateful you are no longer feel it ..Loving you forever , Your Sue.

“ We are sorry to hear of Trisha's passing, and regret that we will not be able to attend services. Our condolences to all of her family. We have fond memories of her visits to Canada. May we all find comfort in those happy memories. Affectionately, Uncle Charlie, cousins Lorraine and Paul and all our families

“ I miss my Aunt Trish dearly. I treasure the moments we had together. I will never forget her and my mom playing scrabble in the pool. I will never forget how great of a listener she was.

Over a few summers I remember her spending the night on our couch. Me and her stayed up late. We drank Mountain Dew, talked about current events, and watched movies. There will always be a hole in my heart for her absence.
