“ My earliest image of Marion Clements Love is of her, as a child usher in Children’s Church at Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Detroit, Michigan, when I was about 10 years old. It was her job to welcome little children to our seats and make us feel comfortable within that sacred space. I remained in touch with her, throughout elementary, high school and college.. In fact, it was at my “Sweet Sixteen Party” at Bible Community Baptist Church, in Detroit, that Marion accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior. I was honored to be a bridesmaids at her wedding to Rev. Pellam Love, who would later become pastor of River Rouge Bible Assembly. We kept in touch through various stages of our lives, touching base from time to time, to the warm flame of the Holy Spirit. Marion’s friendship has been one of the joys of my life, frequently helping me to get up and keep going when times were rough. Marion, today, my Spirit, once again, reaches up to touch your Spirit as the angels welcome you to your seat in the everlasting Kin-dom of God.

“ Becoming a Texas guy was never a life dream but your wisdom explained that stuff happens and enjoy and understand the blessings. I have always remembered your thoughts. I also made it a wondrous journey home by coming 1st, to your doorstep every time I visited home. You made coming home that much more thoughtful and loving. I will also miss our morning calls....Love you girl.
