“ *In Loving Memory of Auntie Margie —
Forever in Our Hearts
1949 – 2025
As Your Soul Left and Your Journey Ended*

*As your soul left and your journey ended,
All the outstanding things —
did you know they'll be mended?*

*No more suffering on this earthly plane,
Now you're riding that glory train.*

*You're on that train bound for Zion,
No more pain, no more dying.*

*When you reach your station, Auntie they're gonna have a celebration!
At that celebration, you'll see many faces you haven't seen in a long time,
And you'll hear a familiar voice say, "That's my oldest — she's one of mine."*

You'll hear another gentle voice that left a little before you, Saying, "Thank you for supporting me — I just had to prepare the way for you."

*Then another familiar voice will call, "Auntie Margie, it's so good to see you.
I know the family was shocked and sad,
But the Lord grant me my forever peace.
My heart ached while I was there — now it don't. I get to be with you, Uncle Junior, and Great-Granddad."*

You'll hear yet another voice say, "You're here, girl — you finally came!

*We don't need to talk about all the things I saw;
Just tell me how many times my kids came to see you after losing me."*

*You'll hear the sweet sounds — your favorite gospel and jazz,
And you'll smile that infectious smile, laugh that unforgettable laugh.
Then you'll look back and see us shedding tears;
You'll give us a gentle nudge, whisper in our ears,
"Have no fears, for I am here.
I'll always be — but right now, I'm going to enjoy this party."
Then you'll look again and see and say —
"Is that Jesus at the DJ table, spinning those heavenly melodies?"
"It's on now!"*

*And as I write this poem,
Our spirits will rest at ease,
we knowing you are enjoy your forever peace
Partying, laughing, and dancing in that good place.
Just know we keep your loving memories going and safe.*

*And we thank you, Auntie,
For your everlasting love and grace.*

Forever in Our Hearts
