“ I always admired your mom from the time I was in the fifth grade. I have so many memories of Whitewood days. I see your mother now , standing in front of our house eating her box of starch. Our families were so close and we respected each other. I loved to go to Fram's just to get in her house through the back. I have so many fond memories of Jeanie, Marcia, Sandra and Hammy Hancock 😊 I was on Facebook with her until she took I'll. Sandra job well done! Rest In Peace Mary Jane Hancock 💕💕
