“ I can't find the words to express how Eileen's transition has impacted me. I reached to grab the telephone to tell her something just a couple days ago.
As the old folks say I had to catch myself.

Eileen was my official advisor on all things big and small. I can remember when my dad passed she was angry because I didn't call to let her know. She sent me a special card which she had painted. Finally, I came to an NCA event, and she completely ignored me. Later I explained I was crazy and she understood.

I remember when she called to say she was a mother. Later she asked why I didn't tell her how popular the name Jason was. I actually think it turned out to be perfect.

The Hare and Monteiro families are no stranger to tragedy, This year alone has been unbelievable. Each and every one of you have my sincere condolences.

“ I just learned that my dear next door neighbor growing up on the North End, made her transition. Eileen had a kind, sweet spirit, and she was a phenomenal artist. I'm sending my deepest condolences and prayers to the Hare Family, and the Monteiro Family. Take your rest my friend. Your beautiful presence will be missed.
