TA

“ Matt and I had the same major in college. We were homeboys from New Jersey. We made a practice of sitting next to each other in every class and studying together in the evenings when we weren't working together in one of the college kitchens. The time we spent together was bonding and formative. I will always remember and treasure those days. Rest In Peace my dear friend and classmate.

“ Matthew was very kind and caring. He had a special quality of making people feel comfortable. My time with my brother-in-law was too short, however, it was quality time. His memory will be cherished forever.
