“ To my Cousin, my brother, my friend... thank you for all you taught me, the laughs, the trash talking, the memories in the park playing handball and even the stylish fashion back in the day! I know you were there in Michigan but you your New York family misses you! The COUSINS miss you! The bible says absent from the body present with God. Tell everyone there we love you guys. You will always be in our hearts and thoughts.

“ Maurice and I became full time members of North Shore Church together back when Pastor Randy was the lead Pastor. We attended men's Monday night Bible study together and on thee rare occasion he had some free time when the weather was nice...he would invite me to his hometown for Bible study and to engage in a series of back gammon games. You will be forever missed my most loyal friend and brother in Christ...our parting words were always " I love you man" till we meet again.

PS- please work on your backgammon...beginner 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏

“Offering prayers of comfort to Maurice's family. I've known Maurice at North Shore Church for less than a year, but he made more of an impact than others I have known for many years. Maurice was a "walking Bible", not only because of his vast knowledge of Scripture, but he showed the love of Christ. He was genuine, kind, friendly and an inspiration. His prayers for me and my husband were much appreciated.
