“ I have known Max for 7 years and we always shared stories about life, kids and numerous topics. She always kept a positive vibe and always had a kind word for someone. I am so glad I kept a handwritten message she gave me and the “kryptonite” she made me on my desk. She was truly creative with whatever she touched even tasty treats. She will truly be missed. RIH

“ *I worked with Max for years in a few departments. I remember I needed something made for my daughter for school. Typical me, always waiting til the last min. I ran over to Maxine's desk with 4 pages of colored construction paper. By lunchtime Maxine had created something for my daughter to take to school. Thts jus one example. Max was so creative. Such a sweet person. So helpful.
Willing to offer assistance whenever asked. She will be missed. But never forgotten. RIP Max *

“ Maxine was truly a great person. I had the pleasure of working with Max for the past six years. She was our "go to person" for any decorating tasks. I remember Maxine saving the day by making my sons corsage and boutoniere after another lady totally bombed it. She did such a beautiful job! It was much more than I fathomed. And most recently she came over to my desk and seen a shoe I was blinging for my daughters birthday. She told me how proud of me she was. But wouldn't you know SHE DIDN'T leave it there. She gave me a bunch of very pretty pillows for the party for favors. Max will TRULY be missed
