“ My first time meeting Archie was Years ago, when my sisters and I attended a wedding. We stayed a few nights at his home he treated us as long lost missing family. He was funny attentive and filled us with warmth and history on our family, he made us feel genuinely welcome his smile contagious laughter unlimited was the kind of man you'll always remember and he artfully miss.

*Ellis was a close friend of my for years. He would visit me often..Ellis would come to Columbus, Ohio in his red corvette. We were supposed to have gotten married. But we lived long distance. He was a very kind and always smiling. He lived his 🥜 peanuts. I'm saddened and hurt to find out I can no longer see his smiling face. My condolences to his family.
