“ Mr. Black was a wonderful neighbor and friend. He and his family were the first to make us feel welcomed when we moved across the street from them on Ewald Circle. His daughter Sharon and my son Bobby are the same age and played together often. Mr. Black was kind and treated us like family.

“ I will never forget how thoughtful Uncle Mel was. When I was planning for the 1996 Black Bridges Family Reunion he called me and said Donna I know your probably using your own money to get this thing off the ground. But I will send you a check to help you make it special. The check was right on time and it went to one of the scholarships we gave. Im telling you this because Uncle Melvin was always doing things in the background never needing any acknowledgement for his good deeds. That was a life lesson for me and I will continue to serve in the background for the rest of my life. Our acknowledgement comes from above. Well done Uncle Melvin

I was sharing with Earline and Sharon that my fondest memories of Melvin was when I was a young boy he and Earline would take me to the Detroit Tigers baseball games. It was so exciting actually being there inside of the old Tigers Stadium eating popcorn and having a cold drink and enjoying the game with family. I will always cherish those memories
