Sincere condolences to Tina, Kyle and all of the family. Murdic and I have known each other since Kindergarten at Atkinson Elementary School. We lost contact for decades as we pursued different career and life interests but, rediscovered each other at Hope UMC. It has been a blessing for me to have known such a fine person as Murdic. God bless the family in this season of bereavement.

“ I had the pleasure of working for Mr. Coleman at Wayne County Government and at Wayne State University. He was a gentlemen, a scholar, a mentor and a gifted leader. I am a better man from my association with him in many, many ways. Murdic, thank you for being in my life.
