“ Nancy,
Was a coworker and a very dear friend for many years. We both worked at Wang Laboratories and Digital Equipment Corporation during the early developmental days of office automation and data processing.

Nancy, was very intelligent, helpful, and caring. I remember when she was pregnant with her daughter Erica, how graceful, strong, and focus she was.

Nancy, always provided much needed light to any given dark day.

You will be missed, but never forgotten.

Rest In Peace,

Richard Lyons

“ It is with a heavy heart that I write this about my beautiful mother-in-law and my son’s loving grandmother, Nancy.

Over the last 18 years, our lives have been filled with love, joy, and laughter. From birthdays to holidays, family dinners to spontaneous visits, Nancy brought a warmth and light that made every moment special.

One of the most beautiful experiences of my life was the way she welcomed and accepted me as her daughter-in-law. Her kindness, support, and genuine love made me feel like family from the very beginning — not by title, but by heart.

Nancy will be deeply missed, but her spirit lives on in the memories we’ve made and the love she poured into all of us. Thank you, Nancy, for being a WONDERFUL AND LOVING grandmother, always being supportive and there for Julius, thank you for everything. Your legacy of love will never be forgotten.

*Rest peacefully.

“ I worked with Nancy at BCBSM, she was on my team. She was one of the kindest, hardworking, friendliest persons I knew. She was so calm when things got hectic. We used to laugh together and she had the sweetest smile. I was happy to read about all her 'travels' in recent years. May you rest in peace dear Nancy. Love, Deb Kujawski.

“ I'm heartbroken. Nancy meant the world to me and together we travelled the world - Costa Rico, Southeast Asia, Northern Europe, Italy, the Caribbean, Montreal, the Grand Canyon, Mobile, and the Georgia sea islands. But we also loved most just being together. It was a wonderful 15-year adventure and we made wonderful memories together. It will be difficult for me to face the weeks and months ahead without her. I'll miss her smile, her laugh, and most of all the sound of her voice.

Nancy and I worked together when she met you. Her entire face lit up when she talked about you and the adventures the two of you shared. She was a happy person made even happier by knowing you. I will keep you in my thoughts, Kathy Liu

“ My dear Nancy, I will miss you so much. Nancy and I worked together for many years at Digital Equipment. That's where we first met. She was hard working and all business. Our friendship started there, going through some very tough times together. Ultimately, we both lost our jobs as the company reorganized and down-sized. But our friendship continued and deepened. I loved her energy and her dark humor. We laughed a lot and shared stories of our children finding their way in the world of adults. We shared stories of our mothers and how they were difficult for us to understand. But mostly we shared stories of our gratitude for our closeness. By mutual agreement, we became Soul Sisters and stayed connected til the end. I am so sad to see her gone but she will always be my Soul Sister and loved deeply. Farewell, dearest Nancy. May you find Rick and share a good hug in heaven!! xoxo
