“ To the family of Michelle Hoard better known as Nikki. May God bless you during your time of loss. Nikki was a beautiful soul who was a part of my Pistis Ministry Class and church. We know that she is absent from the body and is present with the Lord. She is free now to live eternity with Jesus.

“ It is never easy losing someone but for us, the Desoto crew, this one is especially hard. We are a family and no matter if we talked everyday or not each person in the Desoto family is super important and I am sure that each one of us left behind to remember you Nikki, has a special story that we can share. Your parting is so sad for all of us but your father reminded me of one very important thing when I greeted him to give my condolences. Mr. Stevenson said, "Don't worry about Nikki, she lived her life for Christ, and she is with Him now, she is just fine." While you my friend will be sorely missed, knowing that being absent from the body means being present with the Lord brings comfort to us all who believe this to be so. Take your rest, Nikki, God bless you on your journey back to Him.

“ My fondest memories of my Nik Nik is always being ready to witness Christ to anyone who she thought needed it. I remember coming home from choir rehearsal one late Thursday evening and I followed her to the gas station to fill up. There was a young lady standing near the pumps asking for money for food for herself and kids. Yep, opportunity! The next thing I knew Nikki had this young lady in her car taking her home and asked me to follow her. She ministered the love of Christ to her and gave her some money and invited her to church. This is who she was, a warrior and Disciple for Christ! I will miss her so much but I know I will see her again!

“ I remember my Auntie Nicki’s smile and ongoing encouragement for me, and my family. She supported me through high school and my college graduation and flew to Arizona to help me celebrate the accomplishment. She was always there to support me through every major milestone in my life. She was a true woman of God and I love and will miss her deeply. You “Pooh” loves you Auntie.

“ Condolences to the Hoard & Stevenson Family:

My heart is broken my niece has gained her wings and became an angel of GOD. This past Friday we (niece Cheryl, granddaughter and I) sat down for a quick meal with Nikki before we did our walk n talk around the track; she was so happy and just full of life. During a phone conversation that same evening, I remember the last thing she said to me was I LOVE YOU auntie! She will be greatly MISSED!

Love Always,

Auntie Carolyn
